

I enjoy XM radio and the choices they offer. I feel they use good judgement in providing entertainment and information to their subscribers. They should be allowed to continue their programming without your interference.